

Annual Needham LWV Book Review March 10!

The Idea That Is America, by Anne-Marie Slaughter, is a book that challenges one to think about, aspire to, and work for American values. The author reminds us of the essential principles on which our country was founded including: liberty, equality, tolerance, equality, justice, humility and faith. She mines pivotal moments in U.S. history for contemporary insight; and she shows that leaders who heed law and justice and proceed with humility can leave behind a more peaceful and just America and a more stable world.

Please join us on Monday, March 10 for an engaging discussion of The Idea That Is America led by members of the Civic Education Committee. For information and registration [go to contact page].

FYI: the book is in paperback and can be found at Amazon.com, new or used books.