

NEEDHAM COALITION FOR TRANSGENDER EQUALITY AND FREEDOM FOR ALL MASSACHUSETTS INVITES YOU TO:

A Community Conversation
on
Transgender Equality

WEDNESDAY • JUNE 6 • 7:00PM
FIRST PARISH UU CHURCH | 23 DEDHAM AVE | NEEDHAM

Join us for a thoughtful conversation about upholding dignity and respect for transgender people, and the threat to human rights for transgender people in MA in light of the November ballot question that could repeal anti-discrimination laws already in place.

Moderator: Irene Monroe, syndicated columnist and nationally recognized LGBTQ activist

Speakers:

Kelly Jenkins, Wellesley Middle School science teaching assistant

Tracy McKay, Needham mom

Catie Curtis, Program Manager Greater Boston PFLAG

Sawyer Bethel, Executive Director OUT MetroWest

Taj Smith, Faith Organizing Director, Freedom MA

A question and answer period will follow. The event is free and all are welcome.

Wednesday, June 6, 7:00-8:30pm

First Parish in Needham, Unitarian Universalist

Coalition Members: OUT MetroWest, Progressive Needham, Temple Beth Shalom, First Parish in Needham UU, Congregational Church of Needham UCC, League of Women Voters of Needham, Needham Diversity Initiative, Needham Human Rights Committee, Greater Boston PFLAG, Christ Episcopal Church, Freedom for All MA, First Baptist Church in Needham

For more information contact Tracy McKay (tracy.mckay@verizon.net) or Rev. Jim Mitulski (revmitulski@gmail.com).