

The League of Women Voters of Needham presents
The Equal Rights Amendment: Why Now?

Sunday, April 28, 2019

4:00 p.m.

Needham Public Library
1139 Highland Avenue, Needham

- What is the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA)?
 - What is the history of the ERA?
 - What is the status of ratification?
 - Why is it necessary today?

Guest Speaker: Professor Cynthia Enloe

Professor Enloe has served as the Chair of the Political Science Department and Director of Women's Studies at Clark University in Worcester, MA. She has appeared on National Public Radio, Al Jazeera, C-Span and the BBC, and is the author of fifteen books and her most recent title is The Big Push: Exposing and Challenging Persistent Patriarchy.

A question and answer period will follow.
The event is free and open to the public.