

Join us for this special evening!

Justice for All: A Conversation with Chief Justice Margaret H. Marshall

Immigrant, legal scholar, groundbreaking justice of the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court

Wednesday, April 1, 2020

7:30 p.m.

Temple Beth Shalom

670 Highland Avenue, Needham (enter from Webster St.)

Margaret H. Marshall

Chief Justice Margaret H. Marshall (ret.) served on the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court as an Associate Justice from 1996 to 1999, and as Chief Justice from 1999-2010. She was the first woman to hold the Chief Justice position in the Court's more than three hundred year history. A graduate of Witwatersrand University (Johannesburg, South Africa), Harvard University, and Yale Law School, Chief Justice Marshall gained a national reputation for both her landmark decisions and her reforms of the Massachusetts court system.

During her fourteen years on the Supreme Judicial Court, Chief Justice Marshall wrote many groundbreaking opinions, including the 2003 decision in Goodridge v. Department of Public Health that made Massachusetts the first state to legalize same-sex marriage. A long-time advocate of access to justice for all, she implemented innovative procedures for self-represented litigants and strengthened pro bono services by the bar.

She has received numerous awards recognizing her judicial and other accomplishments.

Interviewer Vicki Krupp

Needham resident Vicki Krupp is an experienced educator, author, and story teller. She currently works at Listenwise, an edtech startup that brings audio stories into K-12 classrooms.

Event Co-Hosts

Needham Area Immigration Justice Task Force

- Q+A will follow the conversation
- Free and open to all
- Accepting donations for Needham Area Immigration Justice Task Force
- For details visit www.lwv-needham.org